

So much to love!

Round Hill Community Church

Inspiring sermons
Times of quiet reflection
Beautiful music
Friendship and social events
Supporting others: here, near, and far
Preservation of the earth
Christian education for our children
Thoughtful conversations
Keeping in touch online

In this mailing, we've provided you with information about the giving levels that are necessary to fund the programs that help us flourish as a congregation, including nurturing our children, caring for creation, innovative outreach and enriching our faith.

As we strive together to give at the levels that support these various ministries, we can do so in the confidence that we are serving as a force for good in the world and for the world.
